To whom it may concern / Corporate Giving and Community Relations:

Warm greetings from the Fundación Iglesia Virgen de Coromoto USA, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Florida, which I am honored to lead.

I am Father José Palmar, a Catholic priest with more than 35 years of priesthood. For 28 years I served as pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe parish in Maracaibo, Venezuela. For speaking out against corruption and human rights violations I faced persecution and exile. Today, from Florida, I continue to serve the Venezuelan diaspora and thousands of Spanish-speaking faithful from Central America and all of Latin America who gather in our community seeking a word of faith and hope.

Through the Foundation we provide humanitarian aid to migrant families, spiritual and pastoral care, faith-formation workshops, Sunday Mass, and faith and cultural gatherings such as La Bajada de la Chinita, which bring the whole community together.

We invite your company to be part of this work. Your support, one-time or recurring, helps us plan ahead and reach more families in need.
